Use of United Nations logos

Organisations holding the ORANGE Mark may not place the 'Orange the World' logo, the UN Women logo, the UNiTE campaign logo or the United Nations emblem alongside the badge, nor use them in materials referring to it (websites, communications, packaging or marketing materials). The ORANGE Mark is issued by ORANGE THE WORLD, an independent association: it is not issued, recognised or approved by UN Women or the United Nations. Misuse of United Nations logos in connection with the Mark results in suspension of the Mark under these Regulations.
